

All-Party Parliamentary Group on Science and Technology in Agriculture

INCOME AND EXPENDITURE STATEMENT

Name of group: All-Party Parliamentary Group on Science & Technology in Agriculture

Period covered by this statement: 11 February 2020 – 10 February 2021

Income and Expenditure

The group receives no direct income from membership subscriptions, monetary donations, trading income or interest and therefore incurred no direct expenditure over the course of the year.

Value of benefits in kind

Source	Description	Value £s	Received
Front Foot Communications Ltd	Front Foot Communications Ltd provides the secretariat to the APPG: primarily this involves organising meetings, liaising and corresponding on behalf of the group, producing the group's annual report and maintaining the group's web-site. Front Foot Communications Ltd is paid by the following organisations to act as the APPG's secretariat: National Farmers Union, National Institute of Agricultural Botany; UK Flour Millers; Maltsters Association of Great Britain; British Society of Plant Breeders; Agricultural Biotechnology Council; Crop Protection Association; Agricultural Industries Confederation	16,501 - 18,000	11/03/2020 – 10/03/2021